Feel the excitement when the AMP in Central Park project kicks off with The Prelude, an art-focused event sponsored by the Huron Valley State Bank to benefit the outdoor amphitheater and restroom project at Milford's Central Park.

"We're very excited to formally launch the public stage of the AMP in Central Park project during The Prelude," said Joell Beether, executive director of the Huron Valley Chamber of Commerce.

"Donors will enjoy great food, drinks, music and art, while viewing the future space of the amphitheater."

The event marks the beginning of public fundraising efforts surrounding the project.

The Prelude runs 5-7 p.m. on Thursday, May 30. Tavern 131 and Pine Ridge Market will be serving appetizers and drinks at the business casual affair.

Siblings Empty Canvas will entertain with Scott McMath playing the guitar while his brother Mike paints a unique composition reminiscent of the AMP in Central Park project. At the end of the evening, the painting will be auctioned off to benefit the venture. For more information on Empty Canvas, visit www.emptycanvas.com.

Admission to The Prelude is $100 per person with all funds benefiting the AMP in Central Park project. Contact Beether at (248) 685-7129 or joell@huronvcc.com for tickets.

Following the fundraiser, everyone is invited to stay for the opening of the Summer Concert Series, featuring Billy Mack's Juke Joint Johnnies. All Summer Concert Series shows are free and open to the public.

The AMP in Central Park project is a joint venture made possible by the Rotary Club of Milford, the Huron Valley Chamber of Commerce and the Milford Downtown Development Authority.
